AIM works in 13 different countries across Africa and among Africans living in Europe. Its members also serve in Creative Access Nations (CANs) – countries closed to gospel work.

Founded in 1895, Africa Inland Mission is an evangelical, interdenominational organisation with the goal of seeing 'Christ-centred churches among all African peoples.'

AIM International partners with the African church to reach Africa's unreached peoples with the Good News of Jesus Christ.

The Hofmanns Bridgnorth Baptist Church

Jurgen and Katja and their children are going to Madagascar to preach Jesus to the unreached.

"How then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?"

Romans 10:14a

Reaching the Unreached

We are very enthusiastic about our future work in Madagascar. It is our passion to tell the good news of Jesus Christ to those who have never heard; to give them the chance to believe and be saved; to see lives – a country – transformed. AIM Madagascar strives to see this transformation.

We will be living in the capital, Antananarivo (Tana for short). There we will start our language and culture study to be able to communicate the gospel in the heart language of the people. While there, we shall be part of the Tana FOCUS team. This team trains Malagasy Christians as missionaries to the unreached of Madagascar and beyond.

AIM seeks to see Christ-centered churches amongst all African peoples. As part of that commitment, AIM Madagascar is surveying the island for unreached or barely reached people groups and the possibilities to serve them. We shall be assisting in that work and will travel to various locations. In time, we hope to be involved in starting a new team amongst one of these groups.

As a family we have worked towards being missionaries for years, during which time Jurgen has studied Theology and Katja has started home educating the children.

AIM's Vision

Africa is a huge continent – in fact it's bigger than China, the USA, Western Europe, India, Argentina and the UK.... combined! There are over 50 different countries in Africa; 1 billion people; 1000 indigenous languages; 950 people groups who've never heard the gospel, which of course presents a huge challenge! AIM has been responding to this challenge for over 100 years and today there are four million Africans worshipping in churches founded through the work of AIM. But the job isn't finished yet – and that's why missionaries from Europe are still heading out to Africa.

At the end of Matthew's Gospel Jesus instructs his followers to go and make disciples of all nations; to baptise them in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit; teaching them to obey everything that he had commanded them. And this is why AIM's goal is to work alongside the Church in Africa to help reach the 'unreached' with the good news of Jesus, and to help disciple believers so that more and more Christ-centred churches are established across the continent.

You can also help to make a difference in the lives of people in Africa, whether that is by going, praying or giving. Please will you consider whether you could be one of the Hofmanns support partners in relation to the work they are involved in with AIM?

If you would like to partner with them in this way please complete and return the response form to:
